Phone: 801-326-2433

Education: BS degree from West Point and MBA from Harvard Business School

Profession: Director of Military Affairs

Recognitions & Honors:

As the Director of Military Affairs, Ted leads the department's efforts related to the state's military installations, units, community organizations and defense businesses. Ted is a lifelong military professional and defense industry leader.

He comes to the department with a diverse background in business, academia, defense policy and budgeting, and operational units. As a career Army officer, Ted is a combat veteran of Operation Desert Storm. Ted has been local to Utah for over a decade, since his final Army assignment leading the Department of Military Science at the University of Utah. Following his military retirement, Ted entered the defense industry, working both business development and programs for a leading defense contractor. A veteran himself, Ted is well attuned to the needs and contributions of veterans and their families, as well as the benefits and limitations associated with many service programs. He is a lifetime member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Military Officers Association of America, and a member of the Association of the United States Army and the Air Force Association.
