UTAH DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS & MILITARY AFFAIRS

The Utah Department of Veterans and Military Affairs (UDVMA) assists Veterans and current members of the U.S. Armed Forces and their dependents in numerous capacities. This includes the preparing and securing of claims for compensation, hospitalization, education, vocational training, and other benefits or privileges which Veterans and our current armed forces have earned through their military service. Additionally, UDVMA oversees four State Veteran nursing homes and the Utah Veterans Cemetery and Memorial Park.

UDVMA also advises the Governor and state legislature on matters pertaining to military affairs throughout Utah and serves as a liaison to the leadership of Utah's military installations, defense industry, and economic development organizations.

Employer Resources

The below resources are designed to support employers as they hire and work with Veterans and service members.

Utah Department of Workforce Services

The Utah Department of Workforce Services (DWS) has compiled various state and federal tools, training and other resources to support employers hiring and working with Veterans and service members. You can learn how to best recruit, engage and retain Veterans and find information on tax credits and other programs. DWS also houses several employment specialists dedicated to assisting Veterans seeking employment and supporting employers with their organization's veteran, military and spouse employment needs, initiatives and more. Learn more at <https://veterans.utah.gov/employer/>

Utah Patriot Partnership

The Utah Patriot Partnership network is a Utah DWS program that empowers businesses through their pledge to extend priority consideration of employment practices to veterans, military members and spouses. Joining the network allows your organization to stand out and be recognized as an employer of choice by veteran and military talent. Employers who have taken advantage and optimized this talent have gained a competitive edge.

Utah Veteran Employment Tax Credit

The Utah Veteran Employment Tax Credit is for employers who hire qualified veterans.

The credit is separate from the Federal Work Opportunity Tax Credit available to an employer who hires a veteran, especially one who is disabled. The federal and state tax credits can be combined if the veteran meets the eligibility criteria. Learn more at <https://incometax.utah.gov/credits/veteran-employment>

HIRE Vets Medallion Program

The HIRE Vets Medallion Program is the only federal-level Veterans employment award for employers. It seeks to recognize a company or organization's commitment to veteran hiring, retention, and professional development. Learn more at hirevets.gov

LEGAL ASSISTANCE

BURIAL BENEFITS

Utah Veterans Cemetery & Memorial Park

The Utah Veterans Cemetery and Memorial Park is a state-operated cemetery located just north of Camp Williams in Bluffdale, Utah. It offers a beautiful panoramic view of the Wasatch Mountains. It provides an appropriate venue for memorial services, funerals, meditation, and other Veteran memorial related events. Families can choose any funeral home or mortuary to help plan your services. Bring the veteran's DD-214 or military discharge paperwork to the mortuary. The mortuary will send the DD-214 to the cemetery. The mortuary will also contact the cemetery to reserve a day and time for the graveside service and burial. There are no fees for a veteran's burial. However, there is a small fee of $1,002.00 (adjusted annually) for the burial of an eligible veteran's spouse or dependent child.

17111 South Camp Williams Road
Bluffdale, Utah 84065
Hours: Mon – Fri, 9:00AM to 5:00PM
Phone: (801) 254-9036

More burial benefits such as headstone, markers and medallions; burial allowance; graveside military honors; survivor benefits and more can be found at <https://veterans.utah.gov/burial-benefits/> and at <https://cem.va.gov/burial-memorial-benefits/>

UTAH STATE VETERANS NURSING HOMES

The State of Utah has four beautiful Veteran nursing homes for Veterans needing long-term care. The Utah Department of Veterans and Military Affairs oversees these homes and the day-to-day operations are provided by a contracted private healthcare provider. All four homes carry high rating by the Centers of Medicare & Medicaid Services.

In general, a Veteran is eligible for admission to these homes if they served on active duty or deployed while serving in the reserves. There is no cost for veterans with a 70 percent or higher service-connected disability (SCD). For Veterans with no SCD or an SCD that is less than 70 percent, the VA subsidizes the cost with a per diem of approximately $120 a day. Spouses of Veterans and Gold Star Parents are also eligible for admission, however the cost of care is not covered or subsidized by the VA. If you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to the homes directly.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCE

Utah Military Retiree Tax Credit

The Utah Military Retiree Tax Credit provides tax relief to retired military members living in Utah by allowing them to exclude their military retirement pay from state income taxes. For more information, visit <https://incometax.utah.gov/credits/military-retirement>

Utah Veteran First-Time Homebuyer Grant

The Utah Veteran First-Time Homebuyer Grant program is open to eligible Veterans and current service members (Active Duty, Reserve or Guard). Eligible first-time homebuyers may apply for a $2,500 grant to go towards the purchase of a home in Utah. If you are a recently separated Veteran (last 5 years) or a currently serving member of the military living in Utah and are interested in buying a home for the first time in Utah, this program is for you. Learn more at <https://veterans.utah.gov/first-time-homebuyer-grant/>

Disabled Veteran Property Tax Abatement

This property tax abatement is available to veterans disabled in military service (at least 10 percent disability), their unmarried surviving spouse or minor orphans. The abatement is up to $521,620 of taxable value of a residence, based on the percentage of disability incurred in the line of duty and on the unemployability classification.

- Example: A Veteran with a 100 percent service-connected disability rating would receive the maximum $521,620 subtracted from the taxable value of their property. A Veteran with a 10 % percent disability would receive $52,162 (10% of $521,620) subtracted from the taxable value of their property. (Title 59, Chapter 2 (Property Tax Act))

The abatement can also be applied toward tangible personal property, such as motor vehicles. An application with proof of military service and proof of disability (or death) must be on file with the county where the eligible property is located.

Active or Reserve Duty Armed Forces Property Tax Exemption

This exemption is available to active or reserve members of the US Armed Forces on active duty outside the state 200 days in a continuous 365-day period beginning in the prior year. The exemption equals the total taxable value of the claimant's primary residence.

To receive the exemption you must (1) apply on or before September 1 of the year after the year of qualifying service, and (2) include with your application verifying military documentation including orders for qualifying active or reserve service. You must apply each year you are eligible. Only one exemption is allowed for each period of qualifying service. Contact your county treasurer/tax assessor/clerk to apply.

Utah Veterans License Plates

A special group plate inscribed with "UTAH HONORS VETERANS" and featuring the decal emblems of the U.S. Military branch of choice (as well as the American Legion) can be obtained from the Utah Division of Motor Vehicles. This plate benefits the Utah Department of Veterans'and Military Affairs and generates funds to be used in support of efforts benefiting Veterans and service members in Utah. It is available to any person who desires to make the required contribution of $25 for the initial plate and $10 for the annual renewal. Learn more at <https://dmv.utah.gov/plates/license-plates/>

Additional combat badges are available with the Utah Department of Motor Vehicles.

DD-214 & Military Records

If your home of record upon your release from active duty service was within the State of Utah, then the Utah Department of Veterans and Military Affairs may have a copy in our archive. Please contact us at 801-894-2372 or at veterans@utah.gov to request a copy. To search our archive we will need your full name, date of birth, and the last four digits of your full social security number.

If your home of record upon your release was not Utah, you can request a copy of your DD-214 from the the National Archives at www.archives.gov/veterans/military-service-records or call 314-801-0800

Utah Veterans Information System

In 2012 the UDVMA launched the Veterans Information System (VIS). This was designed in cooperation with the Utah Department of Technology Services (DTS) to improve the ability to provide information and services to Utah Veterans. To be included in the VIS, which enhances our ability to serve you, complete the online application at uvisreg.utah.gov/vtsreg/public/Register
