DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Gary Harter, Executive Director

Utah Department of Veterans & Military Affairs

Happy 2018! As in year's past, our first Veterans' Voice of the new year is a wrap-up of the previous year.

In the following pages you will find many photos celebrating events that occurred in 2017 throughout Utah as well as current data information from both the VA and our department. As you will hopefully notice, by both the photos and the data, is the ever expanding programs we have for veterans, military and their family members in our great state.

In Utah we are blessed with terrific partners at the federal, state and local levels, with both public and private organizations and a wonderful business community, who all strive to improve things on a daily basis. Working together we can literally accomplish almost anything and it continues to be a pleasure to serve all of the veterans, military and family members in the state.

We look forward to accomplishing even more in 2018 and wish all of you the best this year. If we can help in any way, please reach out to us. 🇺🇸

Thank you,
Gary

Department of Workforce Services

Dozens of Workforce Services employees statewide work together to support Utah veterans in finding and maintaining employment. The annual Veteran Employment Services Conference is held each September.

Department of Workforce Services celebrated its 20th anniversary, unveiling a new logo and naming their administration building for former governor Olene S. Walker. A Veterans Job and Resource Fair was held in April at the Tooele World War II Museum.

Workforce Services participated in the 25K Jobs Tour through 25 rural counties promoting job growth and economic development. Employment Counselor Jolie Jacobson received the Stars and Stripes Award at the Veteran Employment Services Conference in recognition of her extraordinary efforts in helping veterans become employed.

Workforce Services in Washington D.C. In November, Utah Department of Workforce Services Disabled Veteran Outreach Program specialist Art Frachia was honored with an invitation to the first White House Veterans Affairs Conference in Washington D.C. The event brought together local and state leaders with members of the President's cabinet and senior staff officials to discuss issues effecting to our nation's veterans.

The presenters included Vice President Mike Pence, Secretary of Veterans Affairs David J. Shulkin, Acting Secretary of Health and Human Services Eric D. Hargan, Secretary of Labor Alexander Acosta and more. Each of their executive departments deal directly with veterans' issues, and they provided an update on how they are working to support veterans.

Frachia also attended a breakout session focused on veteran homelessness, which is particularly relevant in Utah, with Operation Rio Grande underway. The state has been working closely with the VA Salt Lake City Health Care System, elected officials, community organizations and homeless providers to make veterans a top priority and end veteran homelessness. The January 2017 count of homelessness in Utah showed 240 homeless veterans in the state, a decrease from previous years. 🇺🇸

Utah Valley University

The Veteran Success Center and Utah Valley University held events during the week with different departments on campus to include a panel of Current Conflict veterans and Vietnam veterans.

Dr. Karl Hoopes and Ride Utah took a few of our veterans out on a horseback ride in the Wasatch to help distress and combat the stressors of military and civilian life.

Putts for Patriots held its annual Golf Tournament to raise funds for Veteran Scholarships at Utah Valley University.

HIRING UTAH'S HEROES

CAREER AND BENEFIT FAIR

Hiring Utah's Heroes is a statewide initiative developed to help members of the National Guard and Reserve, Active Duty Service Members, transitioning service members, Veterans and military spouses find meaningful employment career opportunities. Established by the Utah Veterans and Military Employment Coalition, the mission of this program is to develop and promote supportive work environments for our currently serving military members and veterans and to connect them directly with employment opportunities and resources, veteran's service providers and supportive employers.

This past year (2017) this program sponsored three major Career and Benefits Fairs at the Davis Conference Center in Layton and the South Towne Exposition Center in Sandy. 637 military members, veterans and military spouses attended these events that featured 242 of the state's top employers. In order to attend these employers were required to have open positions available. At these three events 1,375 resumes were accepted and 270 on-the-spot interviews were conducted resulting in 122 job offers being extended. Additionally veterans and military members were afforded the opportunity to meet with a team of professionals from the Veterans Administration to discuss current veterans benefits, healthcare, education and training, business opportunities and other veteran related opportunities that they may be eligible for.

The Utah Veterans and Military Employment Coalition is sponsored by the Utah Department of Veterans and Military Affairs, Utah Department of Workforce Services, National Guard Employment Support Program, Utah Transition Assistance Advisor, Utah Committee for Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR), Utah Department of Labor Veterans' Employment and Training Services (VETS), Salt Lake Chamber and Top of Utah Chamber Military Affairs Committees, and many other local partners.

Our next Hiring Utah's Heroes event will be conducted on Tuesday, March 20, 2018 at the South Towne Exposition Center in Sandy, Utah. 📍

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

SHOULD I REQUEST A PRINTED VETERAN ID CARD?

You do not need to request this card if you have one of these:

- Veterans Health Identification Card (VHIC), or
- Department of Defense (DoD) Identification Card (Common Access Card (CAC) or Uniformed Services ID Card, or
- State-issued ID (Driver's license) with a Veteran designation or a state-issued Veteran ID Card. Check with your state to see if they issue a Veteran ID Card.

You can use any of these cards to get the same discounts. If you already have one of them, you don't need a VIC, but you can still apply for it if you'd like.

If you don't have one of these cards, you should request a Veteran ID Card.

THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION'S 800 NUMBER IS DIFFICULT TO GET THROUGH. HOW DO I CONTACT SOMEONE WITH THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION?

The published number for the Veterans Administration is 1-800-827-1000. Contacting this number can be frustrating with long hold times, extensive phone tree options, and worst of all being disconnected after waiting. For Utah Veterans calling between 05:00 p.m. to 07:00 p.m. increases the opportunity to speak to a live person. Another option is to call after 07:00 p.m. and schedule a telephone appointment with the VA. The times scheduled are based on East Coast time (09:00 a.m. Utah time is 11:00 a.m. East Coast time).

HOW DO I APPLY FOR THE SOUTH KOREAN AMBASSADOR FOR PEACE MEDAL?

To have your name submitted to the Republic of Korea for receipt of the South Korean Ambassador for Peace Medal, complete the form found on our website (Stay Connected / Register) and e-mail or mail a copy of your DD-214 (Release from Active Duty Service Document) showing your service in the Korean Conflict to:

550 Foothill Drive, Suite 105
Salt Lake City, Utah 84113.

Please include a short note indicating that you would like to be placed on the list to receive the South Korean Ambassador for Peace Medal.
